SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs Warner Bros. Entertainment, Inc. ("Warner Bros. Entertainment"), Warner Bros. Consumer Products, Inc. ("Warner Bros. Consumer Products"), and Turner Entertainment Co. ("Turner") (collectively, "Plaintiffs"), state the following as their Second Amended Complaint ("Complaint") against Defendants X One X Productions d/b/a X One X Movie Archives, Inc. ("X One X"), A.V.E.L.A., Inc. d/b/a Art & Vintage Entertainment Licensing

¹ Dave Grossman Creations, Inc. and Gift of Sound LLC executed and filed a Consent Judgment in favor of Warner Bros. on May 29, 2007 (Docket Entry #64), and, recently, on October 5, 2007, counsel for Grossman and Gift of Sound LLC filed a Motion to Dismiss Cross Claim (Docket Entry #117). That motion was granted on October 25, 2007.

Agency ("AVELA"), Art-Nostalgia.com, Inc. ("Art-Nostalgia") (collectively "AVELA Defendants"), and Leo Valencia ("Valencia") (AVELA Defendants and Valencia shall collectively be referred to as "Defendants").

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiffs are the legal and/or beneficial owners of all copyrights, trademarks, commercial use and merchandising rights, publicity rights and related rights associated with the well-known motion pictures "GONE WITH THE WIND," "WIZARD OF OZ," and multiple well-known TOM & JERRY animated motion pictures. Defendants are trading off the good will associated with GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY by purporting to license rights to create, and offering for sale to the public, unauthorized GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY merchandise in direct competition with Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs seek injunctive relief to stop Defendants' infringing conduct, and compensatory, statutory and treble damages to compensate them for the harm Defendants have done. While purporting to license movie posters which they have restored, in fact, Defendants are in a very different business. What Defendants actually do is obtain copies of movie posters and license them. But rather than being licensed to simply sell the posters, images of actors and scenes used by Plaintiffs to advertise their films are removed and placed upon various products, such as children's clothing, t-shirts, luggage, etc. All such matters are subject to AVELA's written approval but without the permission of Plaintiffs. As a result, the public is purchasing items it believes are connected with and approved by the owners of the films.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 2. These claims arise under the Copyright Act of 1976, 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq. (the "Copyright Act"), the Lanham Trademark Act of 1946, 15 U.S.C. §1051 et seq. (the "Lanham Act"), the state law right of publicity and the state law of unfair competition.

In addition, the Court has supplemental jurisdiction over all claims pleaded under state law pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367.
- 4. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) in that, inter alia, a substantial portion of the acts giving rise to this case occurred within this district, and pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1400, in that Plaintiffs and these Defendants, or their agents, conduct business, reside or may be found within this district and in the state of Missouri. Furthermore, Defendants consented to both jurisdiction and venue by filing a 14-count counterclaim.

THE AVELA DEFENDANTS' BUSINESS

- 16. X One X purports to own copyrights in and to a number of images from and emblematic of famous movies, including GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY, that in truth are owned by others.
- 17. AVELA serves as licensing agent with respect to such GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY images and other copyrights held by X One X.
- 18. Art-Nostalgia operates a website that displays images of the various images that X One X, through AVELA, purports to license, including images from and emblematic of GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY.

THE AVELA DEFENDANTS ARE VALENCIA'S ALTER EGO

- 19. The AVELA Defendants are not operated as true independent businesses. They are undercapitalized, and have only one shareholder, officer, director and employee -- Valencia. The address listed upon their business documents and even given in this case are the same, and that address is a simple mail drop. They are under the complete control and dominated by Valencia and exploit the same alleged intellectual property. Their assets are co-mingled, and, upon information and belief, after expenses, all funds therein are paid to Valencia. Moreover, until recently not all of them filed required corporate tax returns.
- 20. Valencia, has undercapitalized the AVELA Defendants. In fact, the capital of each corporation is a mere $100. He controls 100% of their day-to-day operations, and their records are blended together on a single laptop computer. In addition, all telephone calls directed to any of them are forwarded to Valencia's personal cell phone.
- 21. Upon information and belief, Valencia also does not keep separate books and records for each of the AVELA Defendants, nor does he separate their finances from his personal finances. The agreements between them are not written.

- 22. In essence, the AVELA Defendants are sham corporations, and, as their alter ego, Valencia does not follow corporate formalities.
- 23. As a result, the corporate existence of the AVELA Defendants is a sham, and should be ignored so as to avoid a fraud upon the public.

PLAINTIFFS' INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- 24. Plaintiffs own, hold and/or possess exclusive rights including but not limited to, copyrights in and to the motion pictures GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY.

Thus a significant number of the consuming public associates these images with the films.

GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY continue to be highly profitable properties for purposes of merchandise licensing. For this reason, Plaintiffs possess common law trademark rights in the names GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY, and in images from and emblematic of GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY.
- 34. In addition to Plaintiffs' common law trademarks, The U.S. Patent & Trademark Office ("PTO") has granted multiple federal trademark registrations for the brand names GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY for a wide array of merchandise, as follows:

37. All of Plaintiffs' common law trademarks and federal trademark registrations are referred to collectively as "Trademarks."

- 38. Plaintiffs have invested millions of dollars to merchandise, license and promote the Trademarks. As a result of such efforts, the Trademarks have acquired secondary meaning in the marketplace and are famous and distinctive.
- 39. Plaintiffs' Copyrights, Merchandising Rights, Publicity Rights and Trademarks and all other intellectual property arising out of GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY are collectively referred to as Plaintiffs' "Intellectual Property."
- 40. Plaintiffs' Intellectual Property is well known to the American public, and is permanently intertwined with the motion pictures GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY and as such, GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY have become famous and distinctive brands.
- 41. Plaintiffs have not granted to Defendants any right to use Plaintiffs' Intellectual Property.

THE DEFENDANTS' INFRINGING ACTS

- 42. AVELA operates a website, www.avela.net, on which it identifies itself as "a full service multimedia merchandising and licensing agency, representing the world's largest and rarest artwork collection(s) of Hollywood." On its website and elsewhere, AVELA actively solicits merchandise licensees for a wide range of movie and other entertainment properties in which it purports to own rights.
- 43. AVELA has licensed third parties to make and sell merchandise based on GONE WITH THE WIND and WIZARD OF OZ. Two such purported licensees are Grossman and Gift of Sound which manufactured and distributed three dimensional snow globes and figurines of GONE WITH THE WIND and WIZARD OF OZ in packaging which prominently uses the names GONE WITH THE WIND and WIZARD OF OZ. Those snow globes and figurines have been offered for sale in retail outlets throughout the United States, including in the County of St.

Louis, State of Missouri, and on prominent websites such as eBay. Similarly, Defendants have licensed numerous other manufacturers of goods including, without limitation, apparel, accessories, stationery, greeting cards, mugs, toys and numerous other products to use the Trademarks upon such products. Such licenses require a review of the intended use of the Trademarks as well as the final products bearing the Trademarks by Defendants.

- 44. In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 11(b)(3), and after Plaintiffs have had a reasonable opportunity for further discovery, documents and information will show that AVELA has and continues to license third parties to make and sell merchandise based on TOM & JERRY. That discovery and investigation will show that AVELA's licensees have and continue to manufacture and distribute apparel, among other merchandise, bearing images originating form or associated with TOM & JERRY. Further discovery will also show that apparel has been offered for sale in retail outlets throughout the United States, including in the County of St. Louis, State of Missouri, and on prominent websites such as eBay. Finally, further discovery and investigations will reveal that Defendants have licensed third parties to manufacture and distribute other products, including without limitation, accessories, stationery, greeting cards, mugs, toys and numerous other products to use the Trademarks upon such products. Such licenses require a review of the intended use of the Trademarks as well as the final products bearing the Trademarks by Defendants.
- 45. The images from and emblematic of GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY, licensed and offered for license by AVELA, bear a prominent purported copyright notice in the name of defendant X One X. X One X has filed claims to copyright in a variety of images from and emblematic of GONE WITH THE WIND and WIZARD OF OZ, TOM & JERRY, including, without limitation, copyright registration certificates: VA 1-309-424, "Gone With The Wind Collection"; VA 1-309-342, "Bad Witch

Figurine/Musical"; VA 1-309-447, "Tin Sign Collection"; VA 1-309-462, Wizard of Oz "Yellow Brick Road" Collection"; VA 1-309-468, "Tee for Two Tom & Jerry Collection"; VA 1-309-432, "Milky Waif Collection"; VA 1-309-349, Cartoon Looney Tunes "Going Places" Collection; and VA 1-309-388, "Hollywood Bowl Collection." In its copyright registrations, X One X claims that it has added new material in the form of "changes and additional artwork" to pre-existing movie posters that display GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY and images from and emblematic of GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY. X One X knows, or should know, however, that it has no right to copy or make derivative works that incorporate GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY or images from and emblematic of GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY. The inclusion of purported copyright notices on the materials offered for license by AVELA as an agent of X One X lends a false aura of genuineness and validity to such materials -- and the offers to license them -- and undermines the exclusive rights in GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY, enjoyed by Plaintiffs.

- AVELA maintained a booth with banners displaying images of famous movies and movie characters, including GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY, at major trade shows for the licensing industry in June 2006 and 2007 in direct competition with Plaintiffs and their licensees, who also had booths at the show. AVELA handed out "sell sheets" and actively solicited licensees for merchandise based on GONE WITH THE WIND and WIZARD OF OZ. Similarly, further discovery and investigations will show that AVELA also handed out "sell sheets" and actively solicited licensees for merchandise based on TOM & JERRY at these same trade shows.
- 47. Art-Nostalgia operates a website, www.art-nostalgia.com, that displays an extensive array of visual materials related to motion pictures, including purported movie posters for motion pictures, including GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY. There is nothing on the Art-Nostalgia website to indicate that these materials are available for sale or license by Art-Nostalgia, but they bear the purported copyright notice of X One X. On information and belief, the Art-Nostalgia website, including its inventory of movie posters, is effectively used as an online catalog for the infringing licensing activities of AVELA and X One X. In fact, the listing of movie posters and other visual works on the Art-Nostalgia website is labeled as a "catalog."

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Copyright Infringement) pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq. -- against all Defendants)

- 48. Plaintiffs hereby reallege and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 47 above, and any factual allegations thereafter.
 - 49. This claim arises under the Copyright Act of 1976, 17 U.S.C. § 101, et seq.
- 50. The design, configuration and distinctive features of the films GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY are wholly original and constitute copyrightable subject matter under the Copyright Act.
- 51. At all times relevant to this Complaint, the copyrights in GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY were and are owned by Plaintiffs (or their predecessors in interest).
- 52. The Defendants have infringed and contributorily infringed the copyrights in GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY.
- 53. By, without limitation, licensing, marketing, designing, manufacturing, reproducing, advertising, displaying, selling, distributing, and otherwise exploiting merchandise featuring the films GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY, and/or by authorizing or contributing to the foregoing, Defendants have infringed and will continue to infringe Plaintiffs' copyright interests in GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY.

- 54. Defendants' infringing acts were, and continue to be, committed willfully and knowingly.
- 55. As a result of Defendants' copyright infringement as alleged above, Plaintiffs have suffered and will continue to suffer injury and damage in an amount to be determined at trial. Furthermore, Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants have received or will receive profits, gains, or other benefits from their infringing activities, all of which should be disgorged to Plaintiffs. In the alternative, Plaintiffs reserve the right to seek statutory damages for Defendants' intentional infringement of their copyrighted works.
- 56. Defendants' infringement of Plaintiffs' copyrighted works has caused and will cause irreparable harm to Plaintiffs which cannot be fully compensated by money. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law. Plaintiffs are therefore entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, preventing Defendants from continuing to infringe Plaintiffs' copyrighted works.
- 57. Plaintiffs have and will incur attorneys' fees in pursuing this action, which fees Plaintiffs should recover from Defendants.
- 58. At no time have Defendants been authorized by Plaintiffs to commit the acts complained of herein.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Trademark Infringement pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1114 -- against all Defendants)

59. Plaintiffs hereby reallege and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 58 above, and any factual allegations thereafter.

- 60. The public has come to recognize goods, services and creative works bearing the GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY Trademarks as originating with Plaintiffs.
- 61. Defendants' use of the GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY Trademarks, to advertise, distribute, sell, market, and promote their unauthorized merchandise, is likely to deceive and confuse the public into believing that Defendants' unauthorized merchandise is sponsored by, affiliated with, or otherwise authorized by Plaintiffs as the beneficial owner of the GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY Trademarks.
- 62. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and on that basis allege, that Defendants have engaged in the acts described herein with the intent to trade on the tremendous good will that Plaintiffs have earned in the GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY Trademarks.
- 63. Plaintiffs have never authorized or consented in any way to such use by Defendants of any of the GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY Trademarks.
- 64. Defendants' acts constitute infringement of the GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY Trademarks in violation of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114.
- 65. Plaintiffs have suffered and continue to suffer irreparable harm and injury as a result of the aforesaid infringing acts of the Defendants, and Plaintiffs are without an adequate remedy of law, in that damages are extremely difficult to ascertain and, unless injunctive relief is granted as prayed for herein, Plaintiffs will be required to pursue a multiplicity of actions.

- 66. Plaintiffs have been damaged and are likely to continue to be damaged by Defendants' wrongful acts, in that Plaintiffs' exclusive ownership of their Trademarks in the world famous GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY names are being tarnished and business likely has been, and will continue to be, diverted from the lawful trade of Plaintiffs to the unlawful and infringing trade of Defendants. Plaintiffs will also lose their hard-earned good will, which has been built up through decades of work, effort, financial investment and quality control.
- 67. Plaintiffs are at present unable to ascertain the full extent of the money damages suffered by reason of said infringing acts.
- 68. On information belief, Defendants have obtained gains, profits and advantages as a result of their infringing acts as alleged herein. Plaintiffs are at present unable to ascertain the full extent of the gains, profits and advantages Defendants have obtained by reason of their infringing acts. In order to determine the full extent of such damages, including such profits and damages of the Defendants as may be recoverable pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117, Plaintiffs will require an accounting from each Defendant of all monies generated from their infringing acts.
- 69. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and on that basis allege, that Defendants' wrongful conduct has been willful and malicious and without excuse or justification. Plaintiffs are, therefore, entitled to recover, at their option, three times Defendants' profits or Plaintiffs' damages, whichever is greater, as well as Plaintiffs' costs and attorneys' fees.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Violation of the Lanham Act pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a) -- against all Defendants)

70. Plaintiffs hereby reallege and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 69 above, and any factual allegations thereafter.

- 71. The names, Trademarks and images from and emblematic of GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY have acquired secondary meaning as signifying Plaintiffs as the owner of GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY and the brands GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY.
- The Defendants are unfairly competing with Plaintiffs by using the GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY Intellectual Property to sell merchandise, promote Defendants' licensing business and attract clients who would otherwise do business with Plaintiffs or their licensees. Defendants have, among other wrongful acts, used GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY Intellectual Property to sell unauthorized merchandise, to promote themselves on websites, and to promote themselves at trade shows by prominently displaying GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY Intellectual Property on the AVELA "sell sheets" distributed at trade shows. Such usages by Defendants are likely to deceive their prospective clients and the public into thinking that their licensing activities are authorized, sponsored, or approved by the true and only genuine source of licensing rights in GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY, namely, Plaintiffs.
- 73. Defendants have expressly and implicitly represented to the trade and the public in other ways that they are authorized to license merchandising rights in the Intellectual Property that belong exclusively to Plaintiffs. For example, www.avela.net claims that AVELA "represent[s] the world's largest and rarest movie art collections of Hollywood," and bears the copyright of X one X Movie Archive. Similarly, the "licensing agreement" that AVELA offers and has entered into with licensees includes a representation and warranty that AVELA has "the right to represent the artworks and has the power and authority to grant to the licensee all rights and privileges granted to licensee under this agreement," which include the purported right to manufacture and sell various articles of merchandise based on the licensed property, and that "all [licensed] designs are property of X one X Movie Archive, Inc."

- 74. By the foregoing wrongful acts, among others, the Defendants have falsely designated the origin and falsely described the product, services and rights they offer for sale or license in such a way as to be likely to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive the trade and public into believing that such products, services and rights are affiliated, connected or associated or sponsored or approved by Plaintiffs in violation of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)(1)(A).
- 75. By the foregoing wrongful acts, among others, Defendants have misrepresented and falsely advertised in commercial advertising and promotion the nature, characteristics and qualities of their own goods, services and commercial activities, in violation of Section 1125(a)(1)(B) of the Lanham Act.
- 76. Plaintiffs have been injured and are likely to continue to be injured by Defendants' wrongful acts, in that Plaintiffs' position as owner and licensor of merchandising rights of GONE WITH THE WIND, WIZARD OF OZ and TOM & JERRY is being tarnished and Plaintiffs' business likely has been and will continue to be diverted from the lawful trade of Plaintiffs to the unlawful and infringing trade of Defendants. Plaintiffs will also lose their hard earned good will in their licensing business and exclusively licensed characters, which they have built up through decades of work, effort, financial investment and quality control.
